FORMITALIA ▽

Formitalia will present the new Glamour collection at Salone: a range of seating, a bed and small tables that epitomise pared back luxury. The Giulia sofa and co-ordinating seating are characterised by an elegant tubular metal structure with a satin champagne gold finish, with upholstery available in fabric or nappa leather with a choice of more than 50 colours. The Kean small tables (left) have a similar champagne gold finish on their frames, while black open-pore ash wood legs and marble tops with leather-covered edges. If you're in need of new crockery, look to the charming Coralloset of fine china, which features coral motifs and coral and gold decorative finishes. formitalia.it

FENDI CASA ▽

To celebrate its 30th anniversary this year, Fendi Casa has reinterpreted three iconic pieces, to be presented at the Luxury Living store in Via Durini 25, Milan, during Salone. The Cosima dormouse from 1994 has been reproduced with a seat in blue nubuck leather and combined with the Claudio armchair and Ripetta pouf. There is also the 2004 Eros sofa (below), popular for its elegant, balanced design and versatility, as well as a reproduction of the 2018 One sofa intended to represent Fendi Casa's style today. fendi.com

BORZALINO >

Borzalino's Ayton sofa, designed by De Bona De Meo, features a cushioned seat on a solid structural base and was inspired by the "Nordic geometry of the 1950s". The Ayton range's seats and shelving allow you to create a cool modern-retro scheme, while the Diva chair (right) is pure art deco. Designed by Carlo Bimbi, the small armchair has a shell-shaped backrest and is available with a swivel base. borzalino.com
