Natural aesthetics and design for the new 2018 Alpi wood collections and Alpi-On and Alpikord collections

For ALPI the exploration of the beauty of wood and its forms continues this year, with the presentation of the new collections of wood surfaces that set new aesthetic standards, given concrete form in material and cultural quality and the company's unique approach to design thinking. Stand B08

DIVA design ed by Carlo Bimbi for BORZALINO

The original and decorative lines of Art Deco characterise this small armchair with a wraparound backrest, creatively shaped like a shell. The revolving one is ideal for tea-time or conversation, the fixed version is perfect for a waiting room. Can also be used at the dining table or as a small sofa.
