

Velvet art

Let the world revolve around you, in this Art Deco style small armchair that's as charming for sipping champagne cocktails as it is for afternoon tea. borzalino.com

Photo: KOJARZ

Joyful beauty

A veritable feast for the eyes, the magical Gioiosa chandelier is hand-painted and features precious stones and 24-carat gold in perfect harmony. kolarz.at

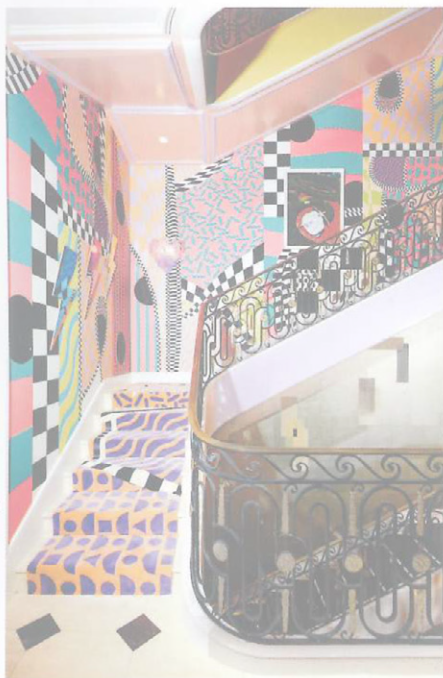

Photo: Genevieve Garruppo

Kip's Bay

At this year's legendary show house fundraiser, New York's Sasha Bikoff's staircase is as fun as it is worldly. Her '80s vivid colors and patterns juxtapose with the house's Old World traditional architecture to give a sense of movement. sashabikoff.com

Get amped

These limited-edition collector surfboards are handmade in France. Shown, Flowers Ripper 1 by Jan van Huysum. Great for hitting the surf or hanging on your beach-house wall. boom-art.com

Photo Credit: Boom-Art

Photo: Insidherland

Golden sunshine

Bringing together the skills of Portuguese artisans and glassmakers, the Rock dining table is part of a handmade collection designed for the most distinctive interiors. insidherland.com

Photo: Coralla Maiuri

Familiar fairytales

Light-hearted, feminine and young in spirit, Coralla Maiuri's ceramics and porcelains are touched by whiffs of the countryside. corallamaiuri.com